

Symptom-Free Pee: LET IT BE

STOP treating asymptomatic bacteriuria; it is not an infection.

STOP testing foul-smelling, dark, or cloudy urine.

WAIT and rehydrate patients who develop changes in mental status, behavior, or function without urinary tract infection symptoms.

GO to urinalysis and urine culture if typical signs and symptoms of urinary tract infection are present.